

Barry Ginsberg Named Acting Executive Director

Barry Ginsberg, General Counsel for the Commission on Public Integrity, has been named Acting Executive Director. The position became vacant with the resignation of the former Executive Director last month.

Before joining the staff of the Commission in 2008, Mr. Ginsberg had been Assistant District Attorney in the office of Robert M. Morgenthau, serving as Senior Investigative Counsel in the Rackets Bureau; Chief of the Labor Racketeering Unit and in the Major Offense Career Criminal Program. He has also been a senior executive and counsel of several investigative and consulting services firms.

At the time of his initial appointment, Robert Morgenthau, the District Attorney for New York County, said, "Barry Ginsberg is an outstanding lawyer and investigator, and a person of the highest integrity."

Mr. Ginsberg received his BA and JD from the State University of New York at Buffalo.
